

photo by Kurt Lindsay

Flight photo by Kurt Lindsay

A FREE
Family Event!

13TH ANNUAL Birds of Prey Festival

SATURDAY | SEPTEMBER 14 | 2019

AT LONE PINE STATE PARK | 9AM TO 1PM

Outdoor Educational Booths & FUN Activities

- Eagle and Owl Face Painting
- Bird arts, crafts & activities for the whole family
- Make things to bring home!
- LIVE Hawks and Owls by Wild Wings Recovery Center

Family Education and Entertainment Programs

7:30 AM "Early Bird Field Trip" with Denny Olson (Professor Avian Guano, et. al.)

10 AM "Basic Raptor Identification" with Derrick Rathe, Lone Pine State Park Ranger (Impress your friends by identifying them in the air!)

Kate Stone

11 AM "Birds of Prey Lore" by Kari Gabriel, The Montana Bird Lady, (with tiny "Tink", the Saw-whet Owl, a Prairie Falcon and a Rough-legged Hawk)

12 Noon "Eagle and Vulture Migration and Ecology: How We Can Help" with Kate Stone, Avian Scientist with the MPG Research Ranch

NOTE: Due to huge turnout and parking issues at Lone Pine Visitor Center, we have a free shuttle van moving participants from the Family Life Christian Church parking lot to the Visitor Center. Please use it if you can! Thanks!

photo by Greg Thigpen

Co-sponsored by: